

PLEDGE FORM

For the years 2017-2021, we hereby pledge (max. 10 lines):

The commitment of the Australian Government to:

- progress ratification of the Protocol of 2014 to the Forced Labour Convention, 1930, and
- work with the business community and civil society to combat modern slavery in the supply chains of goods and services
- take legislative action to establish a Modern Slavery in Supply Chains Reporting Requirement requiring large businesses in Australia to publish annual statements outlining their actions to address modern slavery in their business operations and supply chains and
- review the legislation three years after introduction to ensure that the reporting requirement continues to reflect international best-practice and remains effective in the Australian context.

PLEDGE MAKER:

Full name: Ms Margaret Kidd, Minister-Counsellor

Organization: Australian Government

Place: Buenos Aires, Argentina

Date: 16 November 2017

Signature:

Contact point: David Denney, Branch Manager

International Labour Branch

Australian Government Department of Employment

david.denney@employment.gov.au