

Employability Skills Training to help Job Seekers

Improve your confidence, employability and job seeking skills to get the job you want with Jobfind's EST program!

As part of its commitment to helping job seekers enhance their employability through training and work trials, as well as supporting employers in a changing labour market, Jobfind is proudly delivering Employability Skills Training (EST) on behalf of the Australian Government.

Block 2 training

We work with industry experts and local employers to develop industry focused Course content guided by the local labour market and that will prepare you for specific job opportunities based on your career goals.

Choose between a general training program which covers a range of industries, or a specialist program tailored to a particular industry or available job role.

Through our specialist courses you will gain access to micro credentials from industries such as

- Horticulture
- Hospitality and tourism
- Business
- Cleaning
- Supply Chain
- Health

You will also receive:

- A one-on-one meeting to explore career options, identify employment goals and develop a learning plan specific to your needs
- A Professional Skills profile listing your key strengths and abilities
- Information on accredited training options targeted to local jobs
- Support with digital literacy to be more competitive in the online job market and using workplace technology on the job
- Assist you to utilise available funding to purchase work related equipment or access accredited training opportunities and relocation assistance

Our experienced Facilitators will work closely with you to help you:

- Access paid employment positions with our network of local employers
- Connect with Apprenticeships and Traineeships
