Transition to Work Service Delivery Plan

Supporting local Young People 15 - 24 yrs to Create Better Futures

Kullarri Regional Communities Indigenous Corporation (KRCIC) is a regional representative body for the Kullarri Region, located in Broome, West Kimberley, WA.

KRCIC aims to provide a service in line with our vision to empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People within their communities. KRCIC has extensive experience working with and supporting young people in a culturally safe and appropriate manner. Our local staff have knowledge and linkages with local services to provide a holistic approach that supports young people to reach their goals and work towards sustainable employment and education outcomes.

Transition to Work (TtW)

Transition to Work is designed to help young people who are early school leavers or those who have had difficulty entering employment after school to be work ready so they can enter into training or employment.

TtW Eligibility

To participate in Transition to Work a young person must be:

- Aged 15 24 year, and
- · an Australian citizen, or
- the holder of a permanent visa, or
- · New Zealand Special Category Visa, or
- Nominated Visa (including Temporary Protection Visa or Safe Haven Visa).

There may be other eligibilities that will be assessed upon referral.

Networks

KRCIC has linkages to a range of local networks and stakeholders to support young people, including local schools, training organisations, local employers, Mental Health/Health Services, and local youth hubs. KRCIC is committed to building on these networks to provide young people the best opportunities and services that suit them and their needs.
