

As a Workforce Australia Transition to Work employment services provider our philosophy is to simplify the recruitment process and provide a hassle free experience as we work in partnership with you to ensure your business success. At Status we believe that recruitment is all about the search that builds successful relationships, and using the power of our resources and extensive experience we will help you discover the talent you've been missing.

We work with your future young employees, Apprentices and Trainees from a wide range of industries and backgrounds who are actively looking for employment. With over 32 years' experience matching employers with the right employees, we offer a complete service, including pre-interview screening and training, employee engagement and industry specific training strategies as well as post placement and wage subsidy support that provides peace of mind for you and your new team member. As a proven market leader, empowering people and powering business, Status is invested working hand in hand to support your workforce needs and developing long term relationships with our employers.
