

Service Delivery Plan

The APM Transition to Work Service Delivery Plan sets out our commitments to young people and employers, highlighting unique services you can expect from us across Deception Bay, Caboolture and Kippa-Ring.

For young people, APM gives you the support to find and keep a job by:

- Connecting you with a Youth Support Worker to help you succeed with education or employment
- Providing one-on-one support through your Youth Support Worker including:
 - An initial meeting to identify your strengths, goals and support needs through our Pathway Assessment Tool, leading to an agreed Job Plan of activities that meets your requirements
 - Ongoing fortnightly contacts (minimum). We offer flexible servicing via the phone or virtual meetings when your circumstances prevent you from being available face to face
- Inviting your feedback on how we're doing through our Youth Advisory Group where you can inform our current and future activities, ensuring we remain relevant and continue to meet the needs of young people in your local area
- Connecting you with our boost activities to build practical skills and enhance your job search
- Giving you a personalised login for Employable Me giving you access to APM jobs 24/7
- Offering you additional tailored support depending on your needs, for example Youth Activation Packages, allied health services or links with local community services
- Supporting you once you start work, including access to 24/7 telehealth counselling and the Wellbeing Gateway as well as practical support such as work wear and ongoing training

For employers, APM is dedicated to:

- Providing you with an end-to-end recruitment service. We'll get to know your business and make it easy for you to connect with a dedicated APM Account Manager
- Giving you access to assistance and resources 24/7 via Employable Me, our online platform where you can post jobs and find candidates. By using Employable Me to find your employees, you can find out how to access significant benefits and reduce hiring costs
- Where eligible, we will assist you to access the Youth Bonus Wage Subsidy when you hire a young person
- Offering tailored recruitment packages including pre-employment training to ensure customisation of your needs and the appropriate supports to meet them
- Supporting the induction of your new hire from APM with close contact for the first four weeks, then tailored Progression support for 26 weeks ensuring sustainability of the job and the potential to further up skill your employee
- Connecting you with our network of Apprenticeship Support and Group Training Providers to discuss how apprenticeships and traineeships can benefit your business

About APM

APM started in 1994 as a small team in Perth, Western Australia, looking to provide better vocational rehabilitation for injured workers so they could recover their health and stay in their jobs.

Today we're an international human services provider with more than 1,700 locations across Australia, New Zealand, United Kingdom, Europe, North America, and Asia. We employ more than 14,750 people across 11 countries with a global purpose - to enable better lives.

Our services focus on enhancing an individual's employability, health and wellbeing, and social and economic participation in their community.

We take great pride in empowering people to realise their ambitions and aspirations through sustainable employment, independence, better health and wellbeing, and increased social participation.

Each year, APM supports more than 2.1 million people of all ages to live a better quality of life.
