Automatic Mutual Recognition

- The AMR scheme commenced on 1 July 2022 in all states and territories, except Queensland.
- From 1 July 2022 to 31 March 2024:
 - 13,287 Mutual Recognition (MR) requests were made. The main sectors are security (6,096), electrical (2,165) and property (1,9200).
 - 7,201 AMR requests were made (35 per cent of all MR requests). The main sectors are electrical (2,252), property (1,176), gaming (952) and security (904).
- Under the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 Cth (the Act), State and Territory Ministers can exempt registered occupations from AMR for up to five years, if inclusion is a risk to consumer safety, the environment, animal welfare or the health or safety of workers.
- At 31 March 2024, approximately 50 occupational registrations were exempted across all participating states and territories. These include, but are not limited to:
 - NSW - architects and driving instructors
 - Victoria - gasfitters and registered building surveyors
 - Western Australia - security officers and electricians
 - South Australia - marine pilots and food safety auditors
 - Tasmania - licensed conveyancers and real estate agents
 - the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) - casino employees and firearms dealers
 - the Northern Territory - teachers.
