

Australian Government

Workforce Australia

Workforce Australia services and support

Helping you on your path to employment

Workforce Australia is a FREE online platform where you can search for jobs, and find help and training to find or change jobs. Make an online account on Workforce Australia to get started.

Transition to Work

Helps young people aged 15-24 into work (including apprenticeships and training) or education.

Parent Pathways

A voluntary service that provides personalised assistance and financial support to eligible parents and carers of young children.

Career Transition Assistance

Designed to help people 45 years and over improve their confidence and skills to become more competitive in the local labour market.

Employability Skills Training

Helps people 15 years and over develop the skills that employers want, explore career options, and build job search, workplace and industry specific skills.

Skills for Education and Employment

Free, flexible training to build your confidence and skills. Improve your English, or focus on a foundation skill like reading, writing, maths or basic computing.

Self-Employment Assistance

Help turn your business idea or existing small business into a viable business. Choose the level of support that meets your needs and the needs of your small business.

Local Jobs

Focuses on reskilling and upskilling people to meet local employer demand through an Employment Facilitator.

Jobs Hub

Industry information on the job you want, including about entry-level jobs and advice from a jobs showcase webinar series.

For more information, visit: WorkforceAustralia.gov.au