Subject: Upcoming legislation

Hi there,

I would like to know regarding the Fair Work Legislation Amendment (Protecting Worker Entitlements) 2023 bill,

1. Could I get a soft copy of a brief (Word/PDF) for this bill?
2. When is it expected that the Government will bring this bill up for debate in the House of Representatives?
3. Is there expected opposition on this bill from the opposition and crossbench, and why?
4. May I know the best adviser to contact for this bill?

Thank you very much!

Kind regards,
s 47F(1)

Hi s 22(1)

Thanks very much for that info.

An overview chat with me and coworker s 47F(1) (cc'd) on:

- the consultation process that's been conducted so far,
- measures that are likely to be included in the bill, and
- an overview of views that have been expressed through the consultation process would be excellent.

I'm based in Canberra full-time but as s 47F(1) flies in from Melbourne during sitting weeks, could we find a time next week for this? Does 1pm on Wednesday 21 June work?

Thanks!

Cheers,

Hi s 22(1)

Just following up on this as we have been having briefings on Workplace Relations legislation, and hope to be prepared for when they are introduced in the House.

When can we expect responses to the questions in my original email? Thank you!

Hi s 22(1)

I understand that the government will be introducing new IR legislation later this year, following the workplace reforms consultations processes that have recently closed.

Some of the measures the government will be pursuing are Same Job, Same Pay; criminalizing wage theft; extending FWC powers to include 'employee-like' forms of work; protections against discrimination; national framework for labour hire; improving conditions for casual workers, etc.

Workplace reforms is an area of interest for Zoe Daniel MP, and she hopes to continue engage with the government on these issues constructively, in consultation with her electorate and stakeholders.

I wanted to ask about

1. If the government intends to introduce a number of discrete pieces of legislation for each measure
 - a. What are the bills we can expect?
 - b. When might each of the bills be introduced?
2. If the government intends to introduce a single workplace reforms bill encompassing all the measures
 - a. When might be bill be introduced?
 - b. What resources can we expect the Minister's office to provide independent Members to support their understanding and decision-making process (to support/oppose the reforms) of this complex legislation?

If we are able to get this information about what we might expect in the spring (and beyond) in terms of workplace reforms legislation, it would be really useful for our preparation and consultation with groups in the coming weeks.

Thank you very much.

Cheers,
